Highlights

- Syria: IOM provided emergency Non-Food items (NFIs) for 19,560 displaced and affected individuals in cross-line and hard to reach areas in Rural Damascus and Al-Hasakeh governorates.
- Jordan: Under the leadership of the MoH and in cooperation with WHO, UNICEF, UNHCR and partners, IOM supported the fourth national polio campaign 26 – 30 Oct 2014 through providing 16 cars and 3 buses to transport the MOH vaccination staff in Irbid, Mafraq, Zarqa, Karak Ma'an and Ajloun governorates.
- Iraq: 2,237 individuals were transported from the Ibrahim al-Khalil border crossing to Qushtipa, Darashakran, Baserma and Harir camps in Erbil governorate. Most of these families originated from Kobane, Syria.
- Turkey: IOM continues with its multisectoral assistance in the south east of Turkey focusing mainly on: NFI, winterisation and voucher program in Hatay, Transportation service in Adiyman camp, access to school in Urfa and Mersin province and support for food kitchen in Gaziantep.
- Lebanon: On 14 November IOM launched a new report, "Refugees at Home: A Livelihoods Assessment of Lebanese Returnees from Syria." The report confirms that Lebanese returnees from Syria remain a particularly vulnerable group with characteristics very similar to those of Syrian refugees.

Asilah's Story

FROM INSIDE SYRIA

Asilah, 28, is displaced from Jobar (2 KM from Damascus city-center under ongoing violence) where she lived with her husband in his family's house making income from a vegetable shop. The armed conflict disrupted the neighbourhood severely: the family's house was directly hit by a mortar, two of her nephews were killed while the house was rendered inhabitable. The family soon moved to Kafar Batnah in East Ghouta (Rural Damascus) escaping the violence. Later, East Ghouta came under siege and the humanitarian situation quickly deteriorated. Asilah's family managed to take advantage of a one day cease-fire on a route near Kafar Batnah and travelled to As-Sweida. Now she lives with her husband in a tent. Her husband, who is not fit to do hard work, tries to take any opportunity to generate income. The few workdays he can have causes him sever morbid fatigue to the extent of bone fracture in certain cases. Through IOM, Asilah and her 5 children received NFI and shelter support: a fan, a chargeable light, and a garbage bin; the family was also able to move from their tent to a collective shelter set up by IOM to protect her family and others from the cold winter approaching.
